Welcome to Florida WritersCon 2026

I am honored to serve as Florida WritersCon 2026 Chair! We hope you leave this weekend inspired, energized, and equipped with new ideas, tools, and friends to continue your writing journey. The synergy of people gathering who are passionate about the same thing is, dare I say, magical! Our keynote speaker is a dynamic individual. As a spoken-word poet, Shawn Welcome will explore the power and impact of words. You don't want to miss his memorable presentation. Who knows, we all may aspire to write a poem after hearing Shawn speak. Curated sessions and multiple opportunities to connect with fellow authors drive the weekend. Begin by testing your writing skills in hands-on workshops and end the weekend by attending the interactive marketing "hot seat" session where qualified panelists address the challenging questions writers often face. We hope you enjoy this conference to the fullest!

—Lynn Van Meter, Florida WritersCon 2026 Chair

This year, Florida Writers Association (FWA) is celebrating 25 years of supporting Florida's writing community with knowledge, opportunities, and connections. One thing that has come up again and again this year is the importance of community. It's why FWA was created over 2 decades ago and it's the reason why many writers and other writing organizations join us. And it's why so many writers travel to Orlando every year for Florida WritersCon. There is something magical and nourishing about being in the same physical space with people who understand your passion, your journey, your frustrations, and your triumphs. Thank you for being here and thank you for being part of Florida's literary community. You're shaping the future of writing and our community.

—Ginnye Cubel, Executive Director

We're so glad you're here at Florida WritersCon 2026! Wherever you are in your writing journey you'll find value in the workshops and Writers Connect, Shawn Welcome's Keynote, and the Book Marketing Hot Seat. All weekend you'll be mingling with authors, editors, publishing professionals, and industry experts who understand the creative and business sides of writing. Reach out and make friends. The conference would not be possible without creative leadership and guidance by Ginnye Cubel, and the hundreds of volunteer hours spent by Lynn Van Meter, Donna Brown, Michael Farrell, Arielle Haughee, Paul Iasevoli, Minda Stephens, and the dedicated members of the conference committee. Thank you for devoting your time and talents to making this event a success.

—Mary Ann de Stefano, President

Don't Miss These 5 Things at WritersCon!

ACCORDING TO OUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Writers Connect kicks off WritersCon this year! What started out as an experiment last year (can we make networking fun and authentic?) turned into one of the most talked about events! Come meet your next writing friend.

One thing I love about WritersCon is that you don't just sit in the back of a ballroom all weekend. You get to roll up your sleeves and try new things! Don't miss the Friday Hands-On Workshops. I'm particularly looking forward to Shawn Welcome's poetry session and David James Poissant's flash fiction session.

Friday and Saturday evening includes mixers! This year we have 2 complimentary drinks on Friday and a complimentary champagne pour on Saturday. The mixers are one of my favorite events because you get a chance to hang out and talk with other cool writers. Oh, and drink wine!

This isn't just a keynote address...it's a multimedia experience that includes spoken word, a film screening, and Q&A. This is something new for us (our standard keynote format is an address and Q&A), and I'm excited to be part of an unforgettable literary experience!

What would a panel of publishing and marketing professionals say about your marketing? This new interactive Sunday experience is a must-see! Even if you don't submit a question, you can learn invaluable tips from professionals and your peers. P.s., I'm moderating this panel!

"WritersCon is my favorite time of the year and I'm excited to spend it with you and our amazing community of writers."

-Ginnye Cubel, Executive Director

Keynote Speaker

Shawn Welcome
